QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Who can participate?

ALL Middle and High School Students of THE BLVD are expected to participate in this Bible Study; both past and new ROP participants. Curriculum is divided into both past and new groups.*

Where are the registration forms?

There are no pre-registrations forms this year. This curriculum will serve as the official Bible Study for our students. All students have to do is show up at the orientation dates listed above. All information will be gathered and shared then.

What is the length of the curriculum and when will the students meet?

Including the orientation weeks, the curriculum is fourteen weeks long set to end December 13. We will meet each Sunday Morning at 8:30 am in rooms designated to each group during orientation.

Is participation mandatory?

Participation is expected and highly recommended that all students participate in the ROP as it is the official Bible Study curriculum for students during Fall 2009. Let it be understood that all incentives and benefits to BLVD youth such as scholarships, recommendations, honors, and trip eligibility will be predicated on their participation in such curriculum and other youth activities.

Are there any costs involved?

Yes, there are costs involved with the ROP curriculum. Costs typically range $25-$50 to cover camping trip, retreat, and attire. Information will be shared during class concerning when these fees are due.
